quality process

Our quality assurance is the process of observing and analyzing customer interactions. Tests a variety of factors: employee attitude & the effectiveness of problem-solving.

We involve the customer facing team in the development of the qa program - by considering the input of our front line team on how they are measured, we arm them with a sense of purpose, help foster a collaborative environment, and fuel ambition.

- Drastically lower the amount of security incidents within our company
- Evaluate an appropriate sample size of interactions.
- Constructive criticism is valuable - we identify and communicate the areas for improvement in an encouraging and supportive manner.
- Using gamification as positive reinforcement - integrate a fun way to achieve the goals set for the organization.
- Solicit feedback - the front line team has an unique and valuable perspective of how to improve customer satisfaction and operations.
- Include all channels in the qa program - calls, email, chat, social media, and back office work
- Processes are defined and easily repeated which has helped us achieve scales of efficiency
- Distribution of responsibility has assisted us in focusing on resolution of issues quickly
- Implementation and keeping it up to date gives us an overview of the overall status of the information security management system

“The support and prompt service extended by Cimon to LOBB is highly commendable and we look forward to your valued support. The Post-Sales Support that were provided by Cimon were top notch both in terms of quality and productivity. The exemplary services provided has contributed towards our increased Customer Lifetime Value, I highly recommend Cimon”

 CEO - venu kondur - Lobb.

Kudos to their team to reach the first step with ease. Cimon took the initiative in such a way that, we found conversion in driver attachments as well as user downloads working during pandemic, which is really a great thing. We have scaled from zero downloads to a decent number within a month. We are 100% that, this journey will be even more fruitful going forward. Thanks for delivering quality un-compromisingly.
